

Key Selling Points

Sliding Clamp Jaw

The Sliding Jaw Clamp combines the convenience a fork meter with the accuracy of a closed current clamp meter. The patent pending low profile sliding clamp jaw easily opens to fit in tight spaces and when closed it provides greater accuracy than open fork measurements.

Essential Functionality

The DL200 is an installer's meter ideal for quick checks or verifying installations with the essential functionality of AC and DC voltage, AC amps, resistance, continuity and data hold and safety rated to CATIII.

Features

The DL200 has a good feel with its' ergonomic design and thumb leveler to easily slide open and close the clamp jaw. It features connected test leads, built-in test lead storage and is backed by a two-year limited warranty.
